IN THE NEWS THIS WEEK

- Mayor's Bowser's proposed budget for FY2016 will be released Thursday, April 2, 2015.

- Five year Plan to End Homelessness in the District of Columbia 2015-2019. The Interagency Council on Homelessness (ICH) is an agency within the city government charged with "facilitating inter-agency coordination of planning, policy making, program development and budgeting for the homeless services system in the District of Columbia."

The DRAFT plan, soon to be finalized, details a ROADMAP to manage homelessness that should result in a significant reduction in homelessness in the next 4 years. It is a major step forward in planning, but it is not a quick fix. Success will require both adequate and substantial funding particularly in its early years as well as implementation that demonstrates continued commitment on ending homelessness as a priority in government and in the community.
